*Opening Prayer (Unison)

O Creator God, may the waters that covered us at our birth once again remind us of our creation in you.

Remind us that we are vessels of the waters of hope and that your outpourings have power to heal and make whole our bruised world. Let the living waters of creation, womb, baptism, and Spirit encircle us that we may remember we are yours and be thankful. Amen.

"Forth in Thy Name, O Lord"

Charles Wesley wrote the text of this hymn and published it in "Hymns and Sacred Poems" in 1749. As a hymn "for believers" it was titled "Before Work". Recognizing the significance of daily work for the Christian, Wesley wrote hymns for both the Sunday service and for daily use. This hymn is an ideal expression of a faithful child of God as he goes forth in his daily tasks. These expressions have the power to turn even drudgery into a life of noble and blessed service.
