"Kyrie Eleison"

Translated from Greek, it means Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy. The origins of the Kyrie can be traced back to the 4th century where Greek was the language of the Church of Rome. Kyrie eleison was a response to petitions. In the 6th century it was incorporated into the Latin Mass. Today we define the Kyrie as a short liturgical prayer in worship. Simply put, a brief petition and response used by Christian churches composed of the words Lord, have mercy, Christ, have mercy.
