For children and youth K-12

I am likely not the only one who is praying that winter has finally loosened its grip and will now lose the battle to spring. With that thought, I want to share this spring blessing by Ralph Waldo Emerson. For flowers that bloom about our feet, For tender grass, so fresh, so sweet, For song of bird and hum of bee, For all things fair we hear or see, Father in Heaven, we thank thee! For blue of stream and blue of sky, For pleasant shade of branches high, For fragrant air and cooling breeze, For beauty of the blooming trees, Father in Heaven, we thank thee!
